

The Resurrection

(ref. Religion for Living - Second Edition pages 176 - 178)

Key Concepts page 2

Homework Frames page 5

Revision Worksheets - general page 7

Revision Worksheets - foundation page 9

Web Links - click on these links:

1. Tragedy to Triumph. (Webpage)
The resurrection of Jesus.
The women at the empty tomb.
From Jesus-story.net

2. The Resurrection. (Video 8:55min)
The Gospel of Luke.
Docu-drama of the resurrection of Jesus.
From The Lumo Project

3. Follow Jesus. (Video 5:40min)
Retelling the Easter Story via Twitter. From Jesus' public ministry to the Easter event.
From ignitermedia.com

4. He is Risen. (Video 1:35min)
What the disciples' excitement might be like today.
From ignitermedia.com

5. Easter in Lego. (Video 7:57min)
The Easter story in lego.
Contemporary idiom.
From Mini B

The Resurrection

(ref. Religion for Living - Second Edition pages 176 - 178)

Resurrection is a key concept in this lesson.

❖ Fill in the word square to show what it means.

1. Write the definition of the concept.

Write a sentence about the concept in your own words.

2.

RESURRECTION

3. Make a list of words connected to the concept.

Draw a picture to illustrate the concept. Label it.

4.

The Resurrection

(ref. Religion for Living - Second Edition pages 176 - 178)

Transformation is a key concept in this lesson.

❖ Fill in the word square to show what it means.

1. Write the definition of the concept.

Write a sentence about the concept in your own words.

2.

TRANSFORMATION

3. Make a list of words connected to the concept.

Draw a picture to illustrate the concept. Label it.

4.

The Resurrection

(ref. Religion for Living - Second Edition pages 176 - 178)

Presence is a key concept in this lesson.

❖ Fill in the word square to show what it means.

1. Write the definition of the concept.

2. Write a sentence about the concept in your own words.

PRESENCE

3. Make a list of words connected to the concept.

4. Draw a picture to illustrate the concept. Label it.

The Resurrection

(ref. Religion for Living - Second Edition pages 176 - 178)

Knowledge Questions

1. What is the resurrection? _____

2. When do Christians celebrate the resurrection?. _____

3. Name the women who went to the tomb on the third day. _____

4. What did the women discover at the tomb?

5. How did the women know Jesus had risen from the dead? _____

6. How were the disciples feeling before they were told about the resurrection?

7. What was the disciples' first reaction to the news that Jesus had risen from the dead? _____

8. What did Peter decide to do? _____
9. How did Mary Magdalene recognise Jesus when he appeared to her at the tomb?

10. What task did Jesus give Mary Magdalene to do after the resurrection?

Understanding Questions

1. Describe what happened on the morning of the resurrection.

2. In what way was Jesus transformed after the resurrection?

3. Why did the disciples disbelieve the women's story?

4. Jesus appeared to Mary Magdalene. What effect did this experience have on her? Imagine how she felt at different times on the day of the resurrection. How did she feel:

- on the way to the tomb?
- when she found the tomb empty?
- when Jesus appeared to her?
- after Jesus appeared to her?

Give reasons why she felt this way.

The Resurrection

(ref. Religion for Living - Second Edition pages 176 - 178)

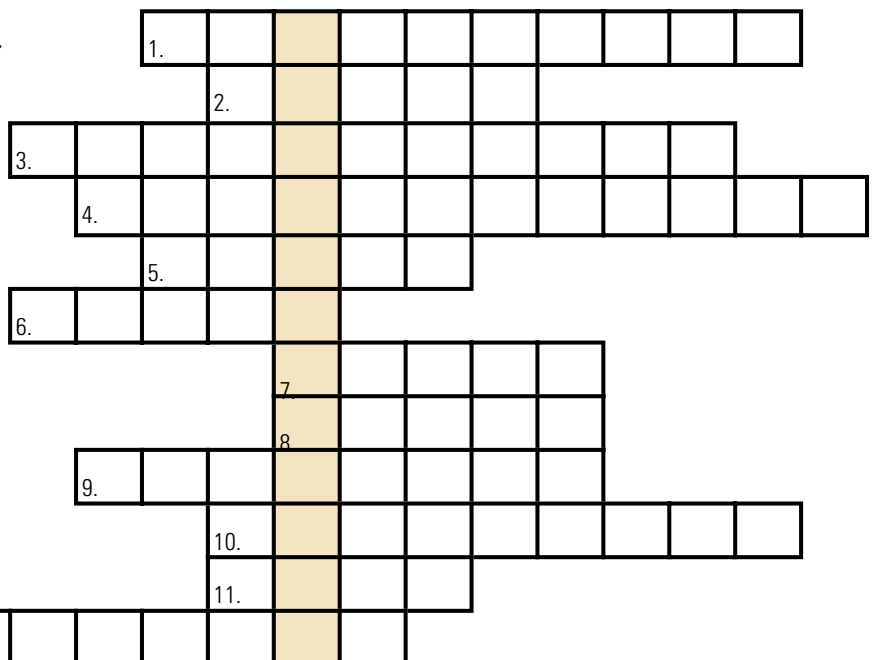

1. Key words.

Christians believe in the _____, that God raised Jesus from the dead. On Easter Sunday morning the women brought jars of _____ for the body of Jesus, but when they arrived at the _____ they found it was _____. A messenger from God told them that “_____ is alive, he is _____ from the _____.” The women rushed to tell the _____ who were still in hiding.

Later one of the women _____ went back to the tomb and cried. Jesus appeared to her but she did not recognise him, he was _____. However when Jesus spoke and said her _____ she knew it was him. She understood that Jesus was risen, he was _____ but in a _____ way. Mary Magdalene was the _____ person to whom Jesus spoke after the resurrection.

2. Crossword.

1. People of faith who believe in the resurrection of Jesus.
2. He was raised from the dead.
3. It means changed or different.
4. It means God raised Jesus from the dead.
5. The number of days that Jesus was dead in the tomb.
6. A disciple who found the tomb empty.
7. What shocked the women at Jesus' tomb.
8. Mary Magdalene was overcome with grief at Jesus' tomb.
9. It is made with oil and spices.
10. Those who did not believe the women's story at first.
11. The place where Jesus was buried.
12. The first person to whom Jesus spoke after the resurrection.

3. Questions.

a. Who discovered the empty tomb?

b. How did the disciples react to the women's news?

c. Why do you think Peter ran to the tomb?

d. Explain why it took Peter some time to grasp the meaning of what had happened.

4. Bible search.

Read the account of Jesus' appearance to Mary Magdalene on the morning of the resurrection. Mary is the first to experience the presence of the risen Jesus. (John 20:11-18)

◆ Quote what happened at each moment of the encounter.

✧ Mary is grieving " _____ "

✧ Jesus appears unexpectedly " _____ "

✧ Mary does not recognise Jesus, she thinks he is the " _____ "

✧ Jesus comforts her with a greeting " _____ "

✧ Jesus does something that she recognises " _____ "

✧ Mary is overwhelmed with joy and peace because Jesus is with her " _____ "

✧ Jesus tells her to spread the Good News " _____ "

The Resurrection

(ref. Religion for Living - Second Edition pages 176 - 178)

1. Key Words

On Easter Sunday morning Mary and the other women went to the t_____. It was e_____. An angel from God told them “J_____ is r_____ from the dead.” The women ran to tell Peter and the d_____. Later one of the women M_____ M_____ went back to the tomb and cried. Jesus stood beside her. When Jesus spoke her n_____ she knew it was him. Mary Magdalene was the first person to whom Jesus spoke after the R_____.

Christians celebrate the resurrection of Jesus on E_____ Sunday.

3. Crossword.

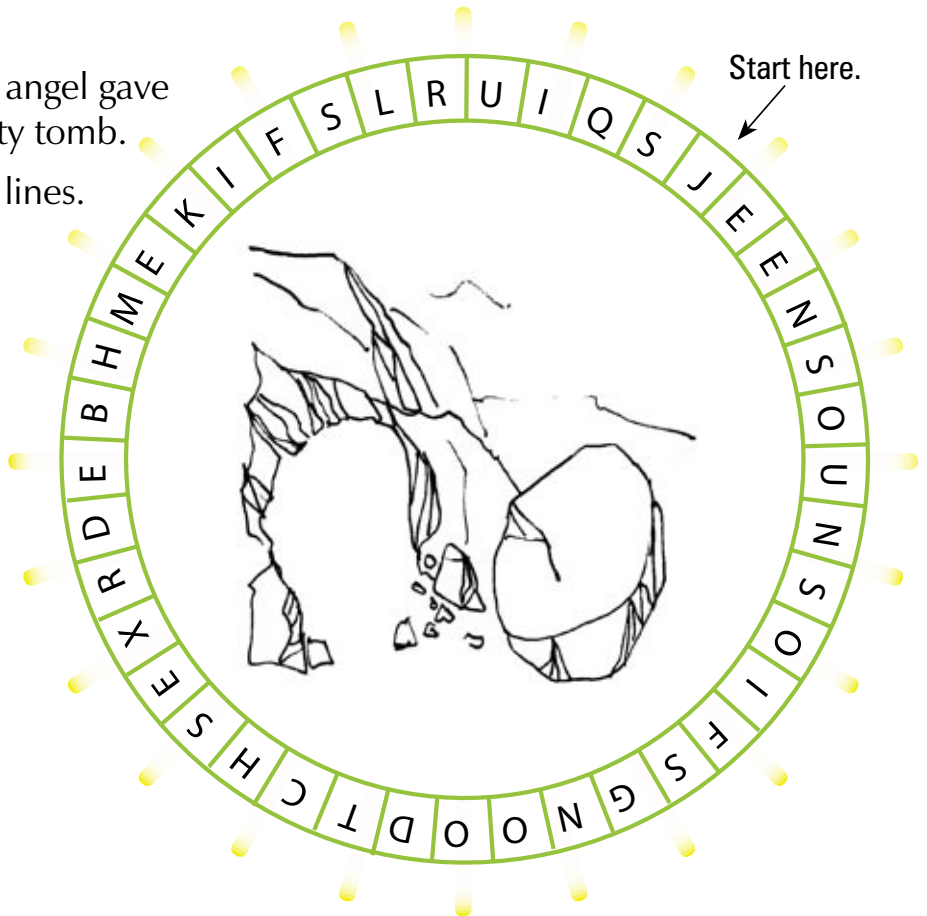

1. People of faith who believe in the resurrection of Jesus.
2. He was raised from the dead.
3. How the women felt on the way to the tomb.
4. It means God raised Jesus from the dead.
5. The number of days that Jesus was dead in the tomb.
6. A disciple who found the tomb empty.
7. It shocked the women that Jesus' tomb was....

8. Mary Magdalene grieved at Jesus' tomb.
9. The day Jesus rose from the dead.
10. Those who did not believe the women's story at first.
11. The place where Jesus was buried.
12. The first person to whom Jesus spoke after the resurrection.

1.			R
			2.	E
				3.	S
			4.			U
						5.	R
			6.				R
							7.	E
								8.	C
			9.				T
									10.	I
										11.	O
12.

2. Circle message.

- ◆ Find the message that the angel gave to the women at the empty tomb.
Write the message on the lines.

4. Colour collage.

Think about Easter Sunday, the day Christians believe Jesus rose from the dead. Imagine the effect it had on Peter and the disciples. Their sadness turned to joy. Their despair turned to hope. Choose colours that show these feelings, then decorate the words below.

Good Friday

Easter Sunday